

PROFESSOR MARTIN J. BUXTON

CURRICULUM VITAE

Personal details

Name: Professor Martin J. Buxton
Education: University of Leicester, UK

Professional experience

Martin has over forty years of active involvement in research and policy-making in economics of health and medical care and on broader aspects of health service policy. Throughout his career, Martin combined institutional activities and academic engagements: He worked as an Economic Adviser at the UK Department of Health and Social Security as well as numerous committees of the UK NICE. He built the Health Economics Research Group at Brunel University into one of the leading University-based units for health economic evaluation research.

Current positions:

- Member, NDA Advisory Board,
- Emeritus Professor of Health Economics at Brunel University London

Previous Institutional positions:

- 1999 – 2018: National Institute for Health and Clinical Excellence (NICE):
 - 2009 – 2018: Member of NICE Early Advice Programme's Panel of Experts
 - 2011 – 2016: Member of NICE Technology Appraisal Methodology Review Steering Group
 - 2009 – 2010: Member of NICE Diagnostics Methods Working Group
 - 2007 – 2008: Member of NICE Appraisal Committee for Patient Safety Programme
 - 2007 – 2008: Member of NICE Single Technology Appraisal (STA) Review Reference Group
 - 1999 – 2002: Member of NICE Appraisal Committee
- 2014 – 2018: Member of UK Department of Health Appraisal Alignment Working Group
- 2014 – 2018: Member of the European Commission's Scientific Panel for Health
- 2009 – 2015: Member of the UK National Screening Committee (2009 - 2015)

Academic positions:

- 1990 – 2014: Professor of Health Economics, Brunel University London
- 1985 – 2009: Director of Health Economics Research Group, Brunel University London

Area of Expertise

- HTA Expert
- Former member of NICE Appraisal Committee and of a number of NICE working groups and experts' panels; Economic Advisor to the UK Department of Health;
- Consultant for many pharmaceutical companies and device manufacturers;
- Development of HTA methods and reimbursement strategies;
- Applied economic evaluation of a diverse range of health technologies and methodological development to support such evaluation and to assist in its use in policy;

Major projects

- Led the influential UK project to estimate the economic returns to public investment in Cardiovascular Disease research and subsequent studies on Cancer and Musculoskeletal Disease research;
- Early evaluation of the UK heart transplant programmes and subsequent research on liver and small-bowel transplantation;
- Lead studies of the cost-effectiveness of screening programmes (particularly the long-term evaluation of screening for abdominal aortic aneurysms);
- Evaluations of hospital organisation, including initiatives to improve their management and financing arrangements, and the introduction of picture archiving and communications systems;
- Founder members of the EuroQol Group and has worked on the development of methods to value the benefits of health interventions.

Awards

Avedis Donabedian Life-time Achievement Award from the International Society for Pharmacoeconomics and Outcomes Research

Publications

Full list of publications available upon request.